THOUGHT THEM SPIES.

Two Women Refused Entrance to the Homestead Works.

Prevented by Militia from Leaving a Train at the City Farm.

H. C. Frick Out for the First Time Since the Shooting.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 5.—There is much indignation here to-day over an allegation made by members of the Advisory Committee that Mrs. Nau and Miss Kate Peery, residents of the borough, were prevented by the militia last night from leaving the train at the City Farm station. The militiamen refuse to discuss the matter, but there is reason to believe that they thought the women were trying to get into the mill yard as spies for the Amalgamated Association.

The old hands got some encouraging news to-day in the shape of a despatch stating that 3,000 men employed in the Studebaker Wagon Works, the largest in the world, had struck against handing iron or steel from the Carnegie mills. They claim that this is only one of many similar strikes to be inaugurated, and that in a short time the product of the Carnegie works will be boycotted in all parts of the country unless the firm gives in. It is hinted that the Studebaker strike is the result of the personal efforts of Hugh O'Donnell, who is now said to be in South Bend.

Supt. Potter was in his office at the mills this morning as chipper as ever. The fact that he was on one of the barges in the river while the riot between the Homesteaders and Pinkertons was in progress will not mitigate against him at his examination on the murder charge, his friends say, as he can show that he deprecated a resort to violence and counseled peace.

He claims that the force of men now at work in the mills is constantly being recruited, and that by Monday next it will be 20,000 men.

The men who took part in the assault on the workmen at Duquesne yesterday are keeping out of sight to-day, as it is said that the Carnegie officials intend to swear out warrants against them for riot.

After the trouble at Duquesne a meeting was called there by the men who struck through sympathy for their brethren in Homestead. Many of those who had agreed to return to work attended the meeting, and after its adjournment announced that they had decided to stand firm and remain out with the Amalgamated men. It is believed that this change of heart was brought about by promises that the Association would pay their living expenses.

Ralph Getty, sub-agent for the Keystone Employment Agency, of 610 Grant street, Pittsburgh, came to Homestead this morning. On his arrival a number of locked-up men spotted him, and he was followed and held up. Officer Jim Walls arrested him, and when Getty protested the crowd wanted to take him to the river and throw him in. Getty became badly frightened and was glad to be placed in the lock-up. He will be charged with resisting an officer and perjury.

ORDERED HIM TO LEAVE.

A Carnegie Employment Agent Frightened Away from Cincinnati.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 5.—Thomas Nell, who, as the result of disclosures made in consequence of an attempt by him to levy blackmail upon Dr. Harper of Barnesville, was committed for trial in the Bow Street Police Court on July 20, on charges of having murdered Matilda Clever by administering strichnine to her, was again remanded until Monday, Aug. 8.

The judge stated that this action was unavoidable, as it was necessary to await the arrival of witnesses from America.

Some one recognized him and told the others who he was. The crowd gave him five minutes to leave, and he hurriedly departed. He was told he would be lynched if he returned.

FRICK ABLE TO BE OUT.

He Visits His Office for the First Time Since the Shooting.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 5.—Mr. H. C. Frick has so far recovered as to be able to be at his office, where he arrived shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. He is attending to his office as usual. It is the first time he has been out since the shooting.

Pinkerton Prisoner Surrenders.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 5.—Last evening Fred Primer, one of the Pinkertons charged by Hugh Ross, of the Amalgamated Association, with murder, surrendered himself to Alderman King and was committed to jail for a hearing, for release on bail on Saturday. The indictment was filed in the court to render before the close of the week. It is probable special officers will be sent to arrest William and Robert Plunkerton.

New York Club Yachts in Collision.

New York, Aug. 5.—The race of the New York Yacht Club's fleet of this place from New London yesterday, the policeman Constellation ran into submerged tidal-wind and split the latter's mainsail, knocking down the owner, G. Cooper Clark, and cutting his head badly. The Bayonnaise also carried away her jib boom.

Two Held for Abduction.

Riva Albert, seventeen years old, and Isaac Levy, twenty-one, were held for examination in the Essex Market Police Court to-day for the abduction of Riva's fifteen-year-old stepbrother. The Bayonnaise also carried away her jib boom.
